

What was the most valuable part of the session for you? Why?	During the next session, I would like to learn more about:	What could we do to improve the WOTP Mentoring Community of Practice that would help you the most?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sharing information with other WOTP teachers. • I found the question-and-answer period at the end most helpful. • Hearing other people's stories. • Being made aware of the resources available I website) • Being able to ask questions and the resource overview at the beginning • Helping new teachers • Connecting with others, for ideas and support • The discussion on the adjustments related to the work placements was quite informative. • Sharing of different realities and réflexions or solutions that are also shared • I value putting faces and voices to names • Connecting with others building relationships and sharing experiences and resources. Also understanding the framework of the WOTP. External and internal 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Various types of work placements / employers that are being offered to students. • During the next session it would be nice to have more time to discuss. • Stage competencies and how it relates to the trade class. • Content for the PSSST course. • different adaption tools for work skills • I would like to hear about the adjustments of the work hours, if there are any. • teaching pre work and semiskilled in same group • issues regarding meeting all of the subset of skills in placements • Other resources available to us. Learn about what other teachers are doing. • The student profiles that are best suited for this programme • Literacy activities for teenagers/young adults. Strategies for struggling readers. Engaging/authentic materials for reading and writing lessons. Cross-curricula learning activities that link work skills and preparation for the job market with literacy. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maybe have something like a Microsoft TEAM for all WOTP teachers or the equivalent in Google. A place where people could meet and share ideas while not using our personal FB page. • It would be helpful to have more frequent mentoring opportunities throughout the year. • Introduction package for new teachers • Knowing about this mentorship, resources, and blog at the beginning of school year. • Maybe bring guest speakers • It is always helpful to get information on the changes related to the WOTP documentation. • I am very appreciative of what you do...It is awesome that you are creating the videos for WOTP 101 • peer pairing

hours. In-house businesses that can be considered external. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Hearing the overview of the new resources.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• assessment and eval• More resources to use for Distance Learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• I'd like to learn about each program and what creative ideas they are implementing in the classroom to support the WOTP learning. Thanks again Johanna and Marsha for hosting the meeting.• Increased access to resources and materials for all the WOTP subjects. Examples of lessons and units of work for subjects such as English Language Arts etc.
---	---	---