

THINK

What ideas came to mind when you were reading the text? Why?

BEST PART

In your opinion, what were the best parts of the text?
Why were these parts better than other parts?

FEELINGS

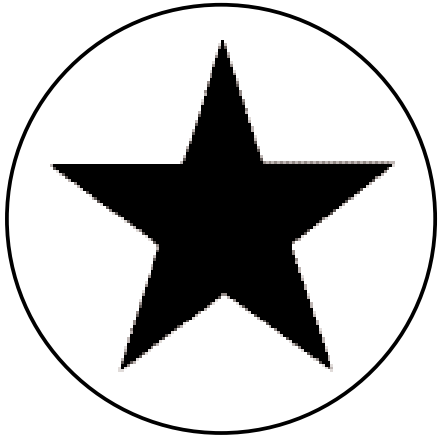

What feelings did you have during or after reading the text? Why do you think you had these feelings?

CHANGE THE ENDING

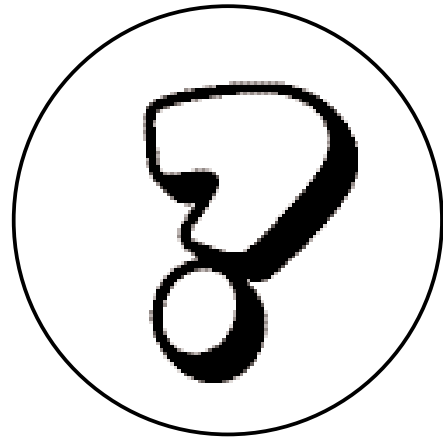

If you could change the ending of the text, what would it become?

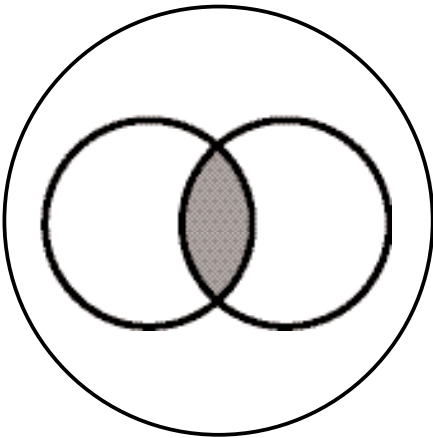

FREE RESPONSE

React to the text using whatever strategy you prefer.

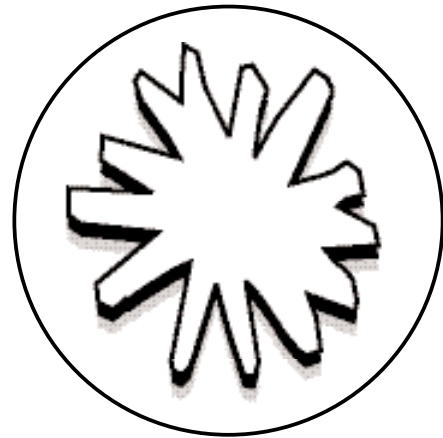

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

If you were one of the characters in the text, what would you have done the same or differently? Why?

SAME OR DIFFERENT?

Are your own experiences the same or different than what happened in the text? In what way?

REMINDS YOU

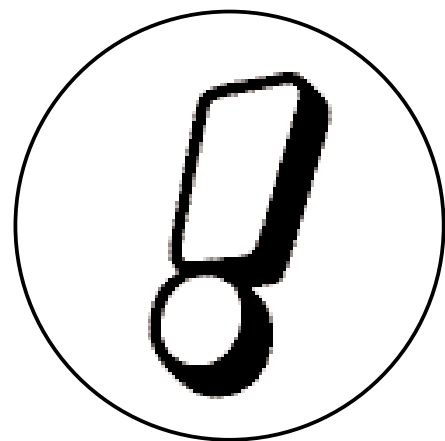

Did a part of the text remind you of anything? People you know? Experiences you have had?

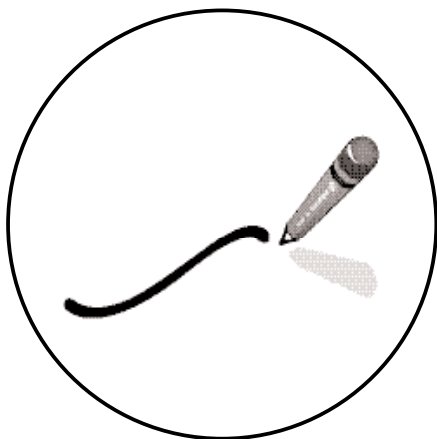

OTHER OPINIONS

How would you respond to this text? Do you think that other people (your friends, teacher) would have a different opinion? How come?

THAT'S INTERESTING

What interested you the most?
Why do you think that is?
Did the author do anything in the way that he or she wrote to make it interesting?

DRAW IT!

What picture did you get in your head when reading? Draw it and write a few words to explain why this was the picture in your head.

HEAR IT!

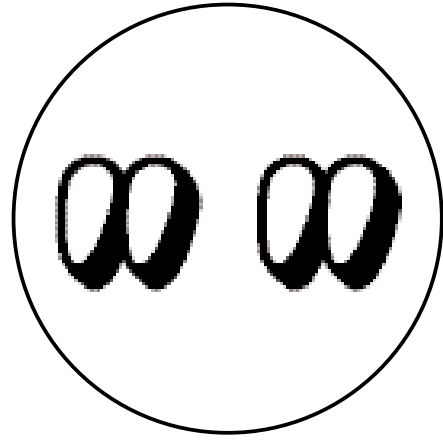

If there were music added to what you read or viewed, what would it sound like? Why?

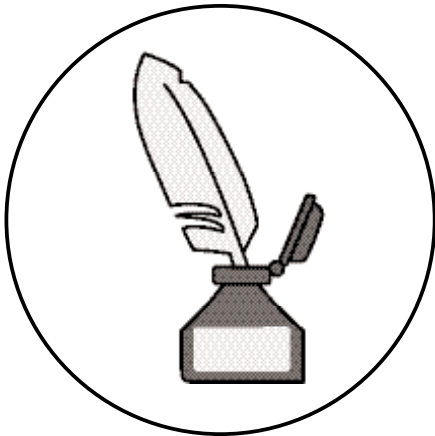

SWITCH-A-ROO!

If you changed the genre of the text that you read, would the meaning change too? How come? Would it be better, worse or just different than the original?

QUOTE IT!

Find a favourite quote in what you read. Why is this quote important to you? Why is it important to the story?

INSPIRATION!

What part of the text could help you with your writing? Did you notice anything interesting that the author did that you might try when you write?

THE WORLD IN A TEXT

What part of the text reminded you of the real world? Why? Were there other parts that were not like the real world?

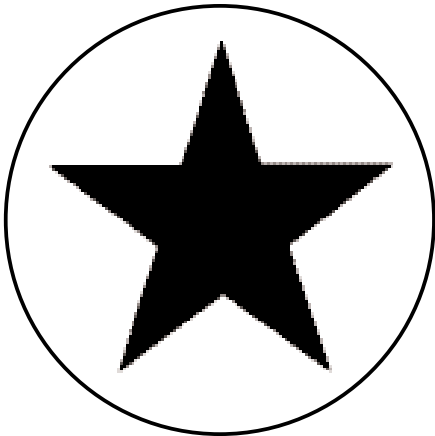

REAL OR FAKE?

Was what you read real or fake compared to your life? In what way?

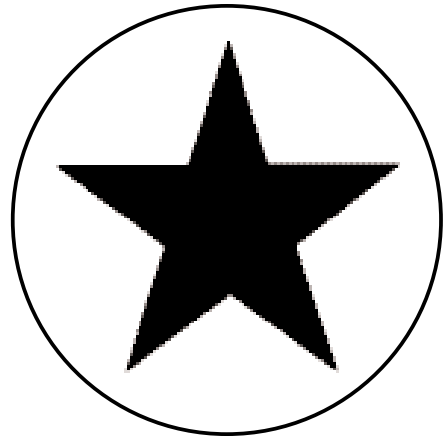

FREE RESPONSE

React to the text using whatever strategy you prefer.

FREE RESPONSE

React to the text using whatever strategy you prefer.

FREE RESPONSE

React to the text using whatever strategy you prefer.

